Dear Valued Customer;

Oregon is not a self service state, and as a non business customer you are restricted from pump your own gas in the State of Oregon. This is regulated by the State of Oregon Fire Marshal, and we must comply with their regulations. To that end, we ask you to sign this agreement. By signing the Agreement for Non Oregon Resident Cardlock Customers Without a Commercial Business form below you agree not to pump Gasoline in the State of Oregon with your Byrnes Oil Pacific Pride card. You may, however, freely use your card to pump any fuel outside of the State of Oregon. If at some time in the future Oregon becomes a self-service state we will let you know.

AGREEMENT FOR NON OREGON RESIDENT CARDLOCK CUSTOMERS WITHOUT A COMMERCIAL BUSINESS

I understand that under ORS 480.345 I am restricted from pumping my own gasoline (also known as Class 1 flammable liquids) within the state of Oregon. I may, however, pump my own Diesel in the State of Oregon. By signing this agreement I have acknowledged this, and agree that neither I, nor anyone possessing a card on my account, will pump gasoline at a Pacific Pride in the State of Oregon with a Byrnes Oil card until such time as Oregon allows self service. I also agree to take responsibility for any and all fees incurred by a violation in this agreement and understand that my account may be closed.
